Re: Diamond Bar Cattle Company v. United States (CIV No. 96-0437
HB/JHG) — Withdrawal of Applicant-Intervenors' February 28, 1997
Motion for Alteration of the December 4, 1996 Memorandum Opinion
Regarding Applicants' Motion to Intervene

Dear Mr. March:

On February 28, 1997, the Applicant-Intervenors (the National and New Mexico Wildlife Federations, Gila Watch, the Rio Grande chapter of Trout Unlimited, and Wilderness Watch) began the motions process specified in D.N.M.LR-Civ.7 by serving all parties with a MOTION FOR ALTERATION OF THIS COURT'S DECEMBER 4, 1996 MEMORANDUM OPINION REGARDING APPLICANTS' MOTION TO INTERVENE.

Based on the in-court representations as to the provisions of a stipulated judgment by the plaintiffs and government on March 25, 1997, the Applicant-Intervenors no longer feel it necessary to pursue their February 28, 1997 motion. I have therefore advised all parties we do not intend to follow through on filing that motion, and consider it withdrawn.

Respectfully submitted,

Thomas D. Lustig

HB/JHG) — Withdrawal of Applicant-Intervenors' February 28, 1997
Motion for Alteration of the December 4, 1996 Memorandum Opinion
Regarding Applicants' Motion to Intervene

Dear Folks:

Based on the in-court representations as to the provisions of a stipulated judgment by the plaintiffs and government on March 25, 1997, the Applicant-Intervenors no longer feel it necessary to pursue their February 28, 1997 MOTION FOR ALTERATION OF THIS COURT'S DECEMBER 4, 1996 MEMORANDUM OPINION REGARDING APPLICANTS' MOTION TO INTERVENE.

Accordingly, I have sent the Clerk of the Court the attached letter "withdrawing" our February 28, 1997 motion, which under (D.N.M.LR-Civ.7) was never filed with the Court.

Sincerely,

THOMAS D. LUSTIG
